After the prizes had been awarded, refreshments were served. Bowling parties are an innovation here, but judging by the remarks of those present they are likely to become a popular form of entertainment, as they deservedly should. All voted Mr. and Mrs. Martin charming hosts.

OPPOSED TO SALOONS

And Methodist Conference Demands that All Candidates Declare Themselves

The temperance committee of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in session at Frankfort, George W. Bain, temperance evangelist, chairman, reported a set of resolutions to that body, providing that it "demand of men seeking offices of public trust, an unqualified opposition to the licensed saloon."

The report goes further than any similar document heretofore reported in Kentucky in that it recommends "unfermented wine" in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper as consistent with the character of a total abstinence church. The report further declares that "The cigarette habit is dulling the brain, weakening the heart and poisoning the blood of our youth to an alarming extent, and the use of tobacco in any form encourages its habit, we hereby request on the part of both preachers and laymen total abstinence from the use of tobacco."

"It is further provided that George W. Young and C. K. Dickey be appointed delegates to the coming anti-saloon meeting of America and that George W. Bain, G. B. Winslow, Rev. J. R. Dearing, W. E. Arnold and J. P. Reed compose the State committee of said league for the coming year."

SENATOR FORAKER defies the public and says he votes as he pleases. As his vote on nearly all National issues displeases the public, the finish of Mr. FORAKER ought to be easily calculated.

It is a remarkable fact that in the Democratic platform promulgated by Mr. HAGER not a word is said about the Judiciary or Juries. Mr. HAGER, doubtless knows and it would be interesting reading to see, why certain Judges were appointed and why certain Juries were selected all of one brand of one political faith.

JANE'S TACTICS

JANE wondered how it would seem if one of the boys should get serious. None of them ever had, as yet, but then that was no sign. Jane was 17, and at that age her own mother had been engaged.

But in the middle of that word her thought broke off automatically. She was so used to being checked just there by the reminder that times had changed and that girls were not married from their cradles nowadays, and the habit held, even in her mental processes.

She was sitting on the front porch with Chad Burnes, and there had always been three long silences. They were peculiar silences, quite out of the ordinary. It was this that had set Jane wondering.

"A clear night of stars," she quoted, looking up at the sky. "Didn't Stevenson know how to say it all in a few words?"

Chad murmured an unresponsive assent and went on with the silence. A man and a woman—young—walked by, hand in hand.

"H'm! Silly!" Jane commented. "Guess they're playing hunkydory," said Chad, coming to life.

"What do you mean?" "You know that game. Course you do!"

"Of course I don't." "I'll teach you, then. First you have to shake hands with me."

Jane surveyed his outstretched palm. It looked clumsy. Still, Chad was a nice boy, even if he didn't have pretty hands.

"It's some trick," she said, as she slipped her white fingers into his. "Now!" he exclaimed, tightening his grasp, "the one that lets go first owes the other a five-pound box of chocolate. That's playing hunkydory."

"Jane's fingers instantly wriggled free. 'I never could endure that long enough to win, anyway,' she remarked, calmly. 'I'd rather pay you the chocolate—as soon as Bert or Morris brings me some more.' There was a crestfallen look on Chad's face," but his manner denied

THE WRONG NUMBER.

Patrick was working in the yards of a railroad. One day he happened in the yard office when the force was out. The telephone bell rang vigorously several times, and he at last decided it ought to be answered. He walked over to the instrument, took down the receiver and put his mouth to the transmitter, just as he had seen others do.

"Hello!" he called.
"Hello! Is this eight-six-one-five-nine?"
"Aw, g'wan! Phwat d'ye t'ink Oi am—a box car?"

NOTHING BUT THE BEST.

Kentucky State Fair Contracts For Only Highest Class Amusements.

For the past ten or twelve years, or since the Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893, street carnival companies have fairly overrun every community in the United States. They could be found upon the slightest provocation at the street fair, county fair and even at some state fairs.

Believing that the public is surfeited with shows of this character; that is, a cheap attraction which barely escapes being a fake, the State Board of Agriculture, under whose auspices the Kentucky State Fair will be given in Louisville, September 16th to 21st, is closing contracts for big amusement features only, and is making no deals with carnival companies. It is sending direct to the great amusement resorts of the country the chairman of the amusement committee, Mr. Pink Varble, giving him authority to get the very best.

In line with this policy, Mr. Varble recently visited Chicago and made a thorough inspection of the famous White City, River View Park and Luna Park. He closed with several of the biggest shows in these big amusement places. One of these is Mundy's Great Wild Animal Show. Mr. Varble says that Mundy's is undoubtedly the best line of wild animals ever collected under a tent, and the finest specimens of each kind. This big zoological congress is one of the most complete trained wild animal organizations in America. No better collection nor finer specimens of the Asiatic and African carnivora are to be found. Over 100 lions, tigers, jaguars, leopards, pumas, panthers, hyenas, wolves, etc., are shown in the highest state of high schooling.

Mr. Varble also closed a contract with the Igorrote Village. This present horde of barbarians are importations direct from the Philippines. The primitive life will be lived every day just as it is at Bontoc. Their huts are of material which has been brought from the mountain fastnesses of the island of Luzon. Unlike the more civilized nations, they believe that the beauty of dress is in the clothing of nature that God gave them on entering the world. The native industries of these people are shown in this village, and the women may be seen weaving their bright colored cotton cloths while the men are engaged in making rings, baskets and pocket hats. Performances will be given both during the day and at night at the Kentucky State Fair.

BIG PREMIUM LIST.

Twenty-five thousand dollars is a lot of money, but that is what is offered in prizes at the Kentucky State Fair, Louisville, September 16-21.

"SIX GREAT DAYS."

POPULAR BELIEF IN KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.

SPECIAL FEATURES ARRANGED.

Program Announced For Every Day and Every Night—All Are to Be Elaborate.

Six special days and as many special nights mean that the Kentucky State Fair will fulfill its promise to have something doing every minute of six great days and nights during the week of September 16th at Louisville. Col. W. W. Hite, President of the Louisville Board of Trade, is the General Chairman of the Committee on Special Days, and has announced the following:

Monday, September 16—School Children's Day. C. B. Nordeman, Member Louisville School Board, Chairman.

Tuesday, September 17—Fraternal Day. R. S. Brown, President Louisville Commercial Club, Chairman.

Wednesday, September 18—Louisville Day. Geo. G. Fetter, Director Louisville Board of Trade, Chairman.

Thursday, September 19—Kentucky Day. Lew B. Brown, of Harrodsburg, President Kentucky Press Association, Chairman.

Friday, September 20—Southern Indiana Day. Adam Heimberger, President New Albany Commercial Club, Chairman.

Saturday, September 21—Everybody's Day. Everybody, Chairman.

The Special Nights Committee is headed by J. V. Beckmann, Manager of the Retail Merchants' Association, who has announced the special nights as follows:

Monday, September 16—German-American Night. F. W. Kelsker, Chairman.

Tuesday, September 17—Irish-American Night. Thos. McCabe, Chairman.

Wednesday, September 18—Labor Night. John Young, President Louisville Federation of Labor, Chairman.

Thursday, September 19—Press Night. Young E. Allison, Chairman.

Friday, September 20—Military Night. Col. W. B. Haldeman, Colonel Commanding First Kentucky Regiment, Chairman.

Saturday, September 21—Farewell Night. Smith T. Bailey, Chairman.

Mr. Nordeman expects School Children's Day to bring little folks not only from Louisville, but from all over the State. He has appointed every county and city school superintendent in Kentucky as a member of his committee.

For Fraternal Day, a large tent will be erected where headquarters may be opened by representatives of all fraternal organizations, to receive, welcome and register guests. It is the hope of Col. Brown to have a series of drills by the uniform ranks of the different organizations.

Mr. Fetter will have the active co-operation of commercial, industrial, financial and professional organizations in making Louisville Day one that will put it in red letters on the Fair calendar.

No one will be bold enough, however, to challenge the popularity of Kentucky Day. Every indication points to its being the banner day of the week. Mr. Brown has named many prominent editors of Kentucky as his associates on this committee. He is counting upon several large excursions from different points. The editors will hold a rally on the night of Kentucky Day, which is known as Press Night, and Col. Allison is arranging a very attractive program. Press headquarters are to be established at the Fair grounds.

Mr. Heimberger is not only appointing Southern Indiana editors, but heads of commercial organizations in that section, as members of the Southern Indiana Day Committee.

The programs for every night will be attractive. This will be especially true of Military Night, when the First Regiment will give an exhibition drill in front of the grand stand.

While the days and nights have been given some special name, it does not follow that the State Fair management wishes to confine the attendance to those interested in the way that the name indicates. On the contrary, the State Board of Agriculture invites everybody to come every day and every night.

At a great outlay of money the State Board of Agriculture has contracted with Captain Roy Knabenshue to bring his passenger-carrying airship, the marvel of the century, to the Kentucky State Fair, September 16 to 21, and give daily flights and exhibitions with a night ride in the air guided by a searchlight.

Pain's famous Manhattan Beach fire works and a gigantic pyrotechnic spectacle, the eruption of Vesuvius, an actual reproduction of the awe-inspiring calamity of 1866, will be given nightly in front of the grand stand at the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville, September 16 to 21.

A State Fair ribbon has the backing of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. It is a trophy of big value aside from the money that accompanies it.

Seasonal acrobatic acts will be given free each day at the Kentucky State Fair, in front of the grand stand.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

Who is the Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor?
South Trimble.

Is he the same South Trimble who was recently a member of Congress and who has long been a leader in Democratic machine politics?

Yes, this is the same South Trimble.

Is he the same South Trimble who is now running with Hager on an alleged reform platform?

Yes, this the same South Trimble.

Is he the same South Trimble who in 1899 wrote that now famous letter to W. E. Thompson urging him to allow himself to be a tool to the malicious purposes of the machine?

Yes, this is the same South Trimble, and here is the letter:

MONDAY, October 2, 1899.

"Mr. W. E. Thompson, Frankfort, Ky.—My Dear Mr. Thompson: I will preface the contents of this letter by saying that you haven't a better friend in Franklin county than I am, and it is because of my friendship for you that I write this letter. You were indicated by the County Committee as one of the Election Commissioners for this county. No better man could have been appointed, but it is an unenviable position and one you should not accept.

"Our county is all right—safely Democratic—but city elections cannot be won WITH A FAIR COUNT, and you know that as well as I do. Incompetent, unreliable Republican Judges will have to be appointed. The right of the Republicans to indicate who shall represent them as Judges will have to be ignored, and the Election Commissioners will have to do this or receive the ill will of the city Democrats.

"I would not do it, for I could not conscientiously do so, and I know that you would not; therefore, my advice to you is to refuse to act.

"I had a talk with Judge Pryor on the subject, and he said if you would refuse to act he would appoint any one that we might indicate, which would be Ben Marshall. You know Ben is so partisan that he thinks anything is right that helps the Democrats.

"Think this matter over and use your best judgment, and if you conclude not to accept, write me immediately, and I will have the change made. I will also see that your interests are represented in the appointment of officers on your side of the river. Let me hear from you at once. Sincerely your friend,
"SOUTH TRIMBLE."

And yet this dishonest politician, ward-beeler and election-grafter, who has aided and abetted and cheated thousands of Kentuckians out of their votes, aspires to be Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky.

It will be a terrible thing, indeed, if we elect South Trimble Lieutenant Governor, knowing what kind of a man he really is.

It is because of such men as South Trimble that Kentucky is known as the worst governed state in the Union.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health.

The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Pears' Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chaffing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

ROBERT JAMES MOORE.

Robert James Moore, formerly a resident of this city, died yesterday in Cincinnati. His remains will be brought here tomorrow morning and interment in Washington Cemetery.

MRS. ROBERT F. MEANS.

The news of the death of Mrs. Robert F. Means, which occurred yesterday morning at 2:30 at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. W. H. Means at Manchester, where she was visiting, came in the nature of a great shock to her scores of friends in her home city.

Although it was known that her health had not been the best for several months, none were prepared when the news was received that this good woman had passed away.

Her death was due to cancer of the stomach. Minerva Ann Shackleford was born December 24th, 1833, in Mason county, where her long and useful life had been spent.

Fifty-seven years ago she was united in marriage to Robert F. Means, whose death occurred in February last.

Servicing her are four children—two daughters, Mrs. E. A. Powell of Cincinnati and Mrs.

H. Lloyd Watson of New York, and two sons—Alvin H. Means of Binghamton, N. Y., and George B. of this city.

Mrs. Means was one of the oldest members of the Christian Church in this city.

The funeral will occur at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from her late home in East Second street, the Rev. Preston A. Cave conducting the services.

The remains will be laid to rest in Maysville Cemetery.

MRS. ROSA COLLINS.
Mrs. Rosa Collins, died Sunday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Kyle, at Summit station, aged 66 years.
She leaves three children—Russell Collins of Fleming county, Mrs. C. A. Kyle of this county and Miss Lottie Collins of this city.
The funeral will occur at the residence tomorrow at 2 o'clock p. m., with services in charge of Rev. P. A. Cave. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

SEC. TAFT'S SWING AROUND WORLD.

Secretary William H. Taft and his family will travel in a special car in train de luxe on the Trans-Siberian railroad when they make the journey from Vladivostok to St. Petersburg next November. Arrangements for that part of the Secretary's world journey have been made at Paris and at Vladivostok by L. J. Garcey, American Manager of the International Sleeping Car Company, which operates the trains de luxe on the great Russian Railway.

Mr. Garcey announced that this itinerary of the journey had been approved by the Secretary of War.

Leave Seattle, Steamship Minnesota, September 12th.

Arrive Yokohama, September 25th.

Arrive Kobe, September 29th.

Arrive Nagasaki, October 4th.

Arrive Shanghai, October 6th.

Arrive Hong Kong, October 11th.

Arrive Manila, Transport McClellan, October 14th.

Leave Manila, November 4th.

Arrive Vladivostok, November 11th.

Leave Vladivostok, train de luxe, November 12th.

Arrive Irkutsk, November 16th.

Arrive Moscow, stop two days, November 23d.

Arrive St. Petersburg, two days, November 26th.

Arrive Berlin, two days, November 29th.

Sail from Cherbourg December 4, per North German Lloyd steamer for New York.

The party will leave Vladivostok on Tuesday, November 12th, by the special train de luxe, which is considered superior to the Russia state trains, which run on other days in the week. The train will be made up of a dining car, observation car and three sleeping cars, each of which has seven two-berth compartments and one three-berth room, all opening off a corridor at the side of the car.

Each compartment of the car which will be used by Secretary Taft contains a table, chair, reading lamp and lavatory.

The only stop during the long ten days ride will be at Irkutsk, the finest city in Siberia, which is situated forty miles from the Southern extremity of Lake Baikal and 3,385 miles by rail from Moscow.

The schedule of the Trans-Siberian Railroad only allows two hours at Irkutsk for changing trains, but if Mr. Taft wishes to stop off and see something of Siberia his car can be sidetracked and attached to the next train. It will be quite cold in Irkutsk at the end of November, but the Russia hotels are well heated and the climate of Siberia is very healthy. Irkutsk is the center of the Russo-Chinese tea trade, the capital of the Governor Generalship for Eastern Siberia, and has a population of 60,000, including 5,000 exiles.

The scenery along the Trans-Siberian Railroad is very wild and interesting. It changes continually from rivers to lakes and mountains interspersed with rugged gorges, waterfalls. At the railroad stations the picturesque Cossack soldiers can be seen on their wiry looking Siberian ponies.

Special provisions, including fruits and vegetables of all kinds, will be put on board the train at different points and everything possible will be done to make Mr. Taft's trip through Siberia as pleasant and interesting as possible.

Russian railroad officials will receive instructions from St. Petersburg to look after the train and see that it gets through on time, as the Secretary is to be the guest of the Czar.

"So far the party consists of Mr. and Mrs. Taft, their nine-year-old son, Brigadier General Edwards, Private Secretary Frederick W. Carpenter, and George Long, a War office messenger, who will accompany the party as general utility man."

The date of the Secretary's return to America was tentatively scheduled for December 10th, but as he is to be the guest of the Czar at St. Petersburg and of the Kaiser at Berlin the departure from Cherbourg on an American bound steamship may be deferred to a later date.

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. F. Walsh, of 288 W. 26th St., New York City, writes:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from female illness which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and organic diseases. It is invaluable in preparing for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women
Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Maysville Readers Know What It Means

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Maysville citizen tells here a certain cure. Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Run Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says;

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint which came on every few months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Donold, the former to preach at Sand Hill and the latter in Bracken county. They are students at the Bible College, Lexington, and are among the 160 other young divines attending this great school.

VERDICT FOR $10,000

Mrs. Blanche Brashear Recovers Big Sum From Railroad

In the Montgomery Circuit Court, Mrs. Blanche Brashear was given a verdict of $10,000 against the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad for the killing of her husband, Dr. James Brashear, in June of last year at the Levee pike crossing near Mt. Sterling. At the first trial of the case a verdict of $9,000 was returned against the road, but Circuit Judge Young granted a new trial on the grounds of excessive damages.
